To the supreme authority of this nation, the Parliament of the common-wealth of England. The humble representation and address of the prisoners of Lud-gate, in the behalfe of themselves and others imprison'd for debt throughout the nation. Declaring how repugnant it is both to the lawes of God, and to the ancient fundamental lawes of this nation, that mens bodies should be imprison'd for debt, and how contrary our statute lawes of latter times are to Magna charta, and the old common-law of England. Together with some brief observations of the customes of the ancient Romans, Greeks, &c. as also

"Mr. Tremeear had completed a search of the official reports and the Western weekly series from 1906 to 1926 before his death and it therefore remained for the present author to undertake the addition of the 1927 cases, and the citations of private series ... Mr. Tremeear had listed his cases under the sections of the 1906 revision and the subsequent amendments and it was therefore necessary to relist the entire work under the appropriate sections of the 1927 revision."—Pref.

The uncertainty of the signs of death, and the danger of precipitate interments and dissections, demonstrated. i. From the known laws of the animal economy. ii. From the structure of the parts of the human body. And, iii. From a great variety of amusing and well-attested instances of persons who have return'd to life ... With plain directions, both for preventing such accidents, and repairing the mis-fortunes brought upon the constitution by them. To the whole is added, a curious and entertaining account of the funeral solemnities of many ancient and modern nations, exhibiting the precautions they made use of to ascertain the certainty of death. Union postale universelle.

Founded 1874 as Union générale des postes. Name changed to its present form at the Paris congress, 1878. Official language: French.
The postal convention and the subordinate agreements are revised periodically, usually at intervals of five or six years, by a congress to which every member is invited to send delegates. Congresses have been held as follows: 1st, Bern, 1874; 2d, Paris, 1878; 3d, Lisbon, 1885; 4th, Vienna, 1891; 5th, Washington, D. C., 1897; 6th, Rome, 1906; 7th, Madrid, 1920; 8th, Stockholm, 1924; 9th, London, 1929; 10th, Cairo, 1934; 11th, Buenos Aires, 1939.
Conferences for the examination of purely administrative questions are held when requested by two-thirds of the members. Conferences have been held as follows: 1st, Bern, 1876; 2d, Paris, 1880; 3d, Brussels, 1890; 4th, Zermatt and Nice, 1921–1922; 5th, Cortina d'Ampezzo, 1925; 6th, Hague, 1927; 7th Paris, 1929; 8th, Ottawa, 1933.
